

INSTRUCTIONS FOR NAME CHANGE OF MINOR CHILD(REN) ON BIRTH CERTIFICATE

INSTRUCTIONS

There are various reasons and ways to change a child's name or a parent's name on the child's birth certificate. In this packet you will find two similar petitions for changing a child's birth certificate. They serve different purposes, so you should choose only the one you need and discard the other. Do not use them both. Here is how to determine which petition to choose:

1. If your goal is to correct the name of the father of the child on the birth certificate and possibly also change the child's name to reflect the father's name, then you should use the petition that is entitled "Petition to Amend Minor Child's Birth Certificate to Change Parent's Name and/or Child's Name." You can either change the father's name OR supply a father's name if one was never named on the original birth certificate if you use this form. In addition, you also have the option of changing the child's name in addition to changing or supplying the father's name.
2. However, if your goal is simply to change only the child's name (to give the child a new first, middle, or last name, or just to correct a misspelled name, etc.), and you do not want to change the father's name on the birth certificate, then you should use the petition entitled "Petition to Amend Minor Child's Birth Certificate to Change Child's Name Only." If a father was named on the child's original birth certificate, the father's name will not be changed when you use this petition. This form will only change the child's name, not the father's.

IMPORTANT

IF THERE IS ANY QUESTION in your mind concerning these forms, the use of these forms, or your legal rights, it is strongly recommended that the services of an attorney be obtained. If you do not know an attorney, you should contact your local Bar Association.

If you are unable to afford the services of an attorney, you should contact the following organization to see if you are eligible for their services:

DUE TO THE CHANGING NATURE OF THE LAW, the forms and information contained in these packets may become outdated. Therefore, you should review and research statutes and rules of procedure referenced in the instructions to ensure that the forms are accurate and current.

USE THESE FORMS AT YOUR OWN RISK. THESE FORMS MAY OR MAY NOT BE APPROPRIATE IN YOUR PARTICULAR CASE. ANY DESIRED OUTCOME FROM THE USE OF THESE FORMS CANNOT BE PREDICTED OR GUARANTEED. IT IS STRONGLY RECOMMENDED THAT YOU SEEK LEGAL ADVICE.

It is advisable to have an attorney when filing legal papers to be sure that your rights are protected and that all the procedures are correctly followed. Courthouse personnel are prohibited by state law O.C.G.A. § 15-19-51 from giving legal advice. Different situations may require special procedures and courthouse personnel cannot advise you on how to proceed or what forms may be necessary in specific situations.

Be aware that answering questions about legal procedure (such as what the law requires you to do, how to prove your case, how to respond to requests by the opposing party or how to get that party to respond to your requests, how to comply with a law or a court order, etc.) constitutes "giving legal advice." Georgia law strictly forbids anyone employed by the Clerk's office, Sheriff's office, judge's chambers, or ADR office from answering such questions. When you choose to represent yourself, it is your responsibility to research the law yourself and figure out what the law requires you to do and how you should proceed. The fact that you are not an attorney is not an excuse or an exception to this requirement.
