

Mission and Objective

To offer the value, quality, benefits, security and fellowship of group travel and to offer planned trips throughout the year for the membership, family and friends. To provide knowledgeable, professional, tour directors who have expertise in the area in which they travel.

Please let us know where YOU want to go. We base our trip schedule to destinations where the most interest is shown. Remember, our dedicated coordinators are only a phone call or email away!